

EDUCATION JUSTICE

Tuesday, November 1, 2011 7:30 p.m.

The Fellowship Room, Unitarian Society of Ridgewood

113 Cottage Place, Ridgewood, NJ 07450

EDUCATION REFORM WHO WINS, WHO LOSES?

JUNIUS WILLIAMS, Esq.
Director of the Abbott Leadership Institute

Department of Urban Education, Rutgers University

Member of the Board of the Education Law Center

This lively and provocative seminar will discuss the intense debate currently underway regarding the future of public school systems in New Jersey's urban and suburban districts. Do suburban districts have to fall behind in order for urban districts to move forward? Why are so many charter schools opening and public schools closing? Why are politicians and celebrities so involved?

????IS THIS ABOUT EDUCATION OR SOMETHING ELSE????

Please join us for this second session of our Education Justice series. Refreshments will be served, and child care is available with two weeks notice. Contact Margaret B. White (marbwhite@aol.com) or Stacey Loscalzo (SLoscalzo1@gmail.com).

Sponsored by the Anti-Racism/Bergen POP Committee and the Education Justice Task Team of the Unitarian Society of Ridgewood.