ForeMentors:

How Our Foremothers Can Serve as Guides to Our Future

Madeline Hansen

As we navigate the opportunities and challenges of 2009, we can look to women of past generations for inspiration and practical advice. The professional and personal choices made by leaders including Susan B. Anthony, Eleanor Roosevelt and Mary McLeod Bethune shed a surprisingly bright light on the decisions we face in our modern world.

Madeline Hansen is playwright and director of The Cabinet Meeting in which Susan B. Anthony is elected U.S. President and appoints a diverse Cabinet of notable women. Over 200 women have appeared as cast members in 26 productions of "The Cabinet Meeting" across the United States. The reaction of cast and audience members prompted Madeline to design the multimedia ForeMentors workshop to explore how women in the past can serve as valuable guides as we chart our own futures.
