

UU Metro District Junior Youth Con

April 18-19, 2009!

Come to the Con, sponsored by Metro YAC! Spend a day and a night meeting other UU middle schoolers from the Metro area, and hang out with your own Sunday morning group, too.

When? 9:00 am Sat. April 18 to 8:30 am Sun. April 19

Where? The Unitarian Church in Westport

10 Lyons Plains Rd Westport, CT 06880

There's accessible space for talking, playing, eating, doing workshops, hanging out, making things, sleeping...

What is a Con, anyway?

Con = conference, a 24-hour event. Junior UU youth meet. We have fun, make, do and learn stuff. We eat. We get to know each other. UU's from all over the Metro area attend. The con is led by YRUU senior youth. RE teachers and parents attend as advisors. The ratio of youths to adults is about 5:1.

How often are they?

There are 2 annual events, this Con in April and the Retreat in September.

How do I attend?

1. Register and pay. The Con costs $50 per person, for food, lodging, supplies... Adults attend free. (If money is a problem, contact us. We can help.)
2. Get there. Each society is responsible for its own transportation. We recommend you coordinate with your DRE.
3. Bring overnight things - toothbrush & toothpaste, towel, soap, comb, etc. Bring a sleeping bag, pillow, (maybe a blanket) a change of clothes. Bring the right clothing for spending some time outside. Bring high spirits, a sense of adventure and your open-minded anticipation. Oh...bring MAGAZINES (for button-making.)

How do I register? Online at
