

Youth Advisor Workshop

June 18, 2011

Sponsored by

The Unitarian Universalist District of Metropolitan New York

- What: Six hours of training in the basics (and beyond) of Youth Advising. We also expect this to be an outstanding opportunity for networking and mutual support among Advisors.
- Who: This is mainly for Youth Advisors, just starting out or old hands. DREs, RE Leaders, and Ministers are also welcome.
- When: June 18th, Saturday, 10am to 4pm. Morning coffee and lunch will be provided.
- Where: First Unitarian Society of Westchester
25 Old Jackson Avenue
Hastings-on-Hudson, NY 10706
Phone: (914) 478-2710
<http://www.westchesteruu.org/>
- Cost: $40 covers the program and meals. Because of our advance expense commitments, we cannot guarantee refunds for withdrawal after the deadline. Refunds will be considered after conference costs have been met.
- Bring: Three ring binder, paper and pen, materials to share from your Youth Program. Wear comfortable clothes.
- Leader: Kierstin Homblette is a seminarian at Union Theological Seminary in New York City, graduating in May with a Master of Divinity. She is a lifelong UU from Orlando, FL, where she was active in her congregation's religious education program. Kierstin "bridged the gap" from youth to young adulthood through involvement in a campus ministry group and by working for the UUA Washington Office for Advocacy as the Legislative Assistant for Women's Issues. She was also an active part of youth/young adult anti-racism work, especially through Groundwork (a collective of anti-racist youth, young adults, and adults). Kierstin is currently serving as the Youth Ministry Consultant for the District.
