You will receive more specifics closer to the event. In the meantime, contact Jan Gartner (585-381-2130 or JanGartnerUU@gmail.com) for content, logistics, or scholarship information. Scholarship money is intended to help those most in need, as a complement to personal and congregational resources. Please note that scholarships are granted to congregations, not to individuals. If you are interested in attending UULTI and need assistance beyond what your congregation can provide, please contact Jan. Some of the factors that we may consider in assigning scholarships are whether you expressed an interest in attending prior to the early bird deadline (May 15) and whether your congregation is sending more than one person.
