UUCSR WOMEN'S GROUP & SOCIAL JUSTICE COMMITTEE TO PRESENT THE PLAY "WHAT KILLED MARCELO LUCERO?"

Manhasset, NY, (May 24, 2011) – The Women's Group and Social Justice Committee of the Unitarian Universalist Congregation at Shelter Rock will present the play, "What Killed Marcelo Lucero?" on Friday, June 3. Admission is free but there is a suggested $15 donation; proceeds of which will benefit the Central American Refugee Center and SEPA Mujer. There will be an antojitos (favorite little dishes) buffet at 7:00 and the play will begin at 7:30 PM in the Worship Room at the Unitarian Universalist Congregation at Shelter Rock, 48 Shelter Rock Road, Manhasset, NY 11030.

This dramatic production by local playwright Margarita Espada explores the brutal murder of immigrant Marcelo Lucero by a gang of youths in November of 2008, and the silence that still echoes most painfully two years after his death. This bi-lingual production draws on the citizens of Lucero's community who have experienced this silence surrounding the bias toward immigrants of Hispanic descent. The audience will be invited to participate in exploring possible solutions to discrimination and prejudice.

Reservations are required and can be made by Contacting Sharyn Esposito at 627-6560 ext. 160

Founded in 1940, the UUCSR is affiliated with more than 1,000 UU congregations across the continent. UUCSR honors the diversity of beliefs and shared values of its members in serving its religious mission of worship, education for all ages, fellowship and social justice.
