

Morristown Unitarian Fellowship to Sponsor UN Economic Justice Conference

District Leaders will be receiving mailings announcing Global Partnerships: Saving Lives Through Economic Justice - A United Nations Millennium Development Goals Conference scheduled for March 25, 2006 at the Morristown Unitarian Universalist Fellowship in Morristown, NJ at which Rev. Dorothy May Emerson, UUA consultant and author of articles on microcredit investing in the UU World Magazine, will present the keynote address, serve as a panelist and workshop leader. Other presenters from universities and humanitarian organizations will discuss achieving gender equity in investments, stopping violence against women and children, educating children and implementing sustainable community development. The conference focuses on information and strategies for individuals and groups to contribute to the UN Goals.
