

Campus Ministry Training in Worcester, Massachusetts, November 11-12

Please consider publicizing in your congregation newsletter and informing directly college students and current/potential members active with campus ministry about the upcoming Campus Ministry Conference in Worcester MA. The conference runs from Friday evening, November 11, through Saturday afternoon, November 12, at the UU Church of Worcester. The cost is $20 and is led seminar-style by two trained facilitators. The purpose of the conference is to teach about “what works” with campus UU groups, share resources and build a network of persons involved with campus ministry leadership.
