What is a Con, anyway?

Con is short for conference, a 24-hour event. Junior UU youth meet. We have fun, make, do and learn stuff. We eat. We get to know each other. UU's from all over the Metro area attend. The con is led by YRUU senior youth. RE teachers and parents come as advisors. The ratio of youths to adults is about 5:1.

How often are they?

There are two annual Junior Youth events, this con in April and the Junior Youth retreat in September.

How do I attend?

1. Register and pay. The Con costs $35 per person, for food, lodging, supplies... Adults attend free. (If money is a problem, contact us. Maybe we can help.)
2. Get there. Each society is responsible for their own transportation.
3. Bring overnight things - toothbrush & toothpaste, towel, soap, comb, etc. Bring a sleeping bag, pillow, (maybe a blanket) a change of clothes. Bring high spirits, a sense of adventure and your open-minded anticipation. Oh...bring MAGAZINES (for button-making.)
